Spring Newsletter March 2023

Welcome to Clockhouse Primary's first Reading Buzz newsletter. We

World Book Day 2023

Lots of our staff and children enjoyed dressing up as their favourite book characters to celebrate World Book day.

Author, David

Mason came to work with us. He taught us how to create a non rhyming poem about what peace means to us.

Reading Raffle

A huge thank you to all the parents and carers for continuing to support our pupils in reading at home. All our children have a Big Cats banded book and a library book to bring home, they are expected to read at home three times per week and have their reading record signed. Every time the children read they are entered into a raffle to win a prize.

BOOK SWAP SHED

Fed up of reading the same old books ?

Why not visit our book swap shed situated outside the school library and swap your old book for another?

No book to swap?

Come along and read a magazine or book in our reading area.

Open Tuesday lunch times.

Guess the Shelfie!

What do you think the profession is of the person who owns this book shelf?

How might reading help them with their job?

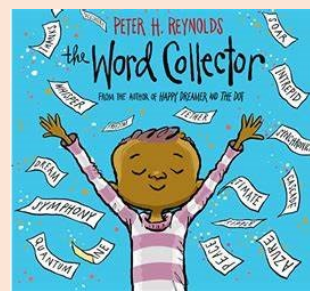

Find out if you are correct on the next page!

Staff Picks

All our staff at love to read! Each newsletter we will recommend books we have read to help inspire you! Miss Spencer's recommendation:

The Word Collector by Peter H Reynolds.

This book is short and sweet. A little boy discovers the magic of words all around him. I like the message that words are a powerful tool and we should collect as many as possible.

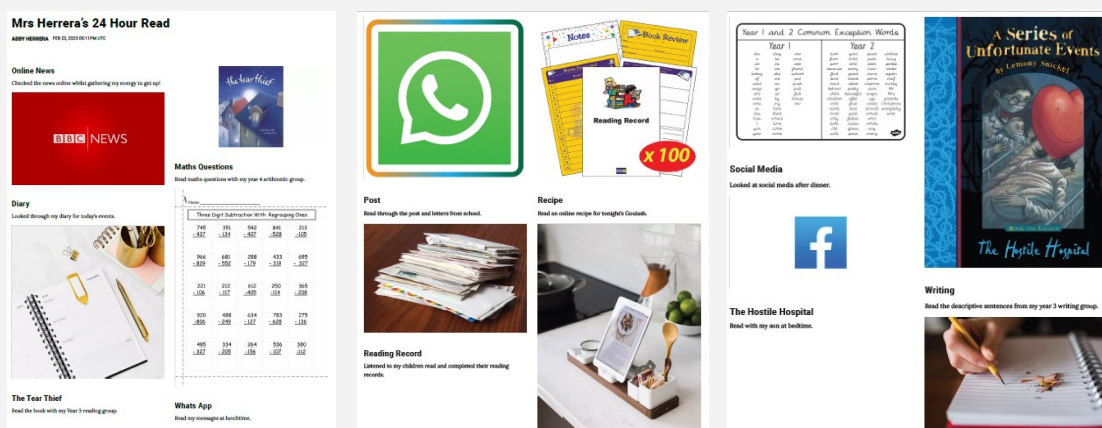

24 Hour Reading Challenge

For our first reading challenge, we want to know what sort of thing everyone is reading so we can ensure we have the materials you love available in school!

We challenge you to record everything you read in a day!

You can do this simply as a list or as poster like in my example.

Travelling Book Fair

Come and visit the travelling book fair and treat yourself to a new book!

Remember to bring your World Book Day voucher!

Tuesday 14th March

After school in the KS2 Hall.

Get Involved!

We would love to hear from you for the next issue. Send in your photos, your recommendations, your reviews or anything else reading related. Pop them to my room or send them via class dojo for the attention of Mrs Herrera..

Happy reading!
